

Carrie's story (A)

Day care workers take care of babies and preschool children.

Day care workers work in day care centres, play schools and other places.

Carrie works as a day care worker. She takes care of the children.

For example, she takes them to the bathroom. She helps them wash their hands. She makes sure the children are safe and gets them ready for naptime.

Carrie works from Monday to Friday. It's an 8-hour shift. She bends, stretches, and stands a lot at work. She also has to lift children and they can weigh up to 20 kilograms. She is always busy. She has to be patient too. Sometimes the children are unhappy. Sometimes they have small fights. Carrie talks to them. She teaches them to play together.

1). Circle all the punctuations.

2). Underline all the capital letters.

3). Colour all the verbs.

4). Colour all the subjects.

5). Colour all the complements.

6). Colour all the adjectives.

7). Colour all the adverbs.

Carrie's story (B)

Day care workers take care of babies and preschool children.

They work in day care centres, play schools and other places.

Carrie is a day care worker. As a day care worker, she takes care of the children.

For example, she takes them to the bathroom and helps them to wash their hands.

She also helps them to get ready for their naptime. While the children take nap,

Carrie checks on them to make sure they are safe.

Since she works an 8-hour shift from Monday to Friday, she usually plans activities for the children on weekends. She is always busy on weekends, so it is important for her to be organized.

Sometimes the children are unhappy because they have small fights.

She has to be patient with the children because she has to teach the children how to play together.

She often bends, stretches and stands a lot at work. She has to lift children and they can weigh up to 20 kilograms. Another responsibility that Carrie needs to do is to talk to the parents of the children. She tells the parents about the children's day.

For example, she says, "Your son made a nice picture today."

Even though a day care worker is not an easy job, she is happy to work with the children.

1). Circle all the punctuations.

2). Underline all the capital letters.

3). Colour all the verbs.

4). Colour all the subjects.

5). Colour all the complements.

6). Colour all the adjectives.

7). Colour all the adverbs.